

ELearning Code of Conduct

Our eLearning code of conduct supports this vision for the school:

Checkendon Primary School is a dynamic Church of England school in which our Anglican Christian values of respect, courage, integrity, compassion and hope are at the heart of everything we do. We give every pupil the opportunity to develop their particular capabilities in our stimulating and caring environment where creative teaching and an inspiring curriculum lead to high-quality learning and outstanding achievement. We work in partnership with parents and the wider community to help every pupil make excellent progress, develop a lifelong love of learning and broaden their sense of citizenship, as they grow in mind, body and spirit.

You should:

- Always follow the instructions of your teacher.
- Keep your username and password secret.
- Only use the internet when there is an adult in the room.
- Always be nice and polite when you send messages to other users.
- Always tell your teacher if you see, hear or read anything which makes you feel uncomfortable while using the computer.

You should not:

- Send anyone a message which is not nice.
- Use bad language in a message.
- Use any other person's user name, work or e-mail.
- Pretend to be another person
- Tell a stranger any of the following information:
 - your name
 - your home address
 - your telephone numbers
 - any other personal information about yourself or any of your friends.

When you are finished using a computer you should always close it down properly following your teacher's instructions.
